

FOUNDATION FOR ECONOMIC EDUCATION

30 S Broadway, Irvington-on-Hudson, NY 10533

1-800-960-4FEE (1-914-591-7230) | Fax 1-914-591-8910 | Website: <http://fee.org/>

The Foundation for Economic Education has announced its 48th consecutive Summer Seminar Schedule. After almost 50 years, the Foundation continues to value the importance of safe learning environments and intellectually robust weeks. Distinguished teaching faculty and liberty-loving colleagues create a stimulating environment that is ultimately empowering.

The following is a snapshot of programming for the summer of 2010:

-College Seminars

- Freedom University (I, II, III)
- Introduction to Austrian Economics
- History & Liberty
- Applying Liberty
- Advanced Austrian Economics

-Attractive Locations

- Estes Park, CO
- Atlanta, GA
- Irvington, NY

-Full Scholarships for All Attendees

The seminars feature a variety of topics such as: Cap and trade, environmentalism, healthcare, mutual aid, current economic trends, immigration, entrepreneurship, business cycle theory, and the Great Depression.

Guest speakers include: Tom Palmer, Israel Kirzner, Don Boudreaux, Peter Boettke, Doug Bandow, Bryan Caplan, Andrew Coulson, Burt Folsom, Robert Higgs, and Benjamin Powell.

Full scholarships cover housing, meals, lectures, and class materials. Application deadline is March 31, 2010. For detailed information and to apply, visit the website <http://www.fee.org>.