Etown Vs. King's Game Notes...

Elizabethtown defeated Alvernia in its first home game of 2005 Thursday evening, 15-5. It was Etown's first non-conference win of the season. Six Elizabethtown players scored a pair of goals in that game, including Angie Eder, Sarah Gilson, Danielle Grooms, Jen Manns, Liz Fretz and Michelle Collier. Among them, Gilson, Grooms, Eder and Manns each had an assist as well. Katie Braid scored one goal and had two assists for the Blue Jays, and Dana White and Ally Edell each tallied single goals. Grooms had four ground balls to lead the Blue Jays. Kelly O'Connor made seven saves in over 46 minutes in the Etown goal, and Leah Robinson played the final 13:50 in the goal. Manns is currently six goals away from becoming the second Blue Jay to tally 100 goals in a career.

King's pounded Cedar Crest 20-3 in a home game Thursday. Ten Monarchs scored in that game, with Lindsay Sabo and Patrice Cote leading the goal scoring with three goals each. Sabo had one assist as well. Kristen Green and Sara Alesso each scored two goals and had one assist. Kim Murray, Grace King, and Michelle O'Brien each scored two goals for King's. Keri Niedt scored one goal and had one assist, and Kim Triftshouser and Melissa Gates each scored one goal. Mary Beth Clark made six saves in the King's net.

Elizabethtown is 3-0 all time against King's. Last year, the Blue Jays edged the Monarchs 15-12.
